

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, public works professionals focus on infrastructure, facilities and services that are of vital importance to sustainable and resilient communities and to the public health, high quality of life and well-being of the people of West Virginia; and
- Whereas, these infrastructure, facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, who are engineers, managers and employers from state and local governments and the private sector, who are responsible for rebuilding, improving and protecting public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential for our citizens; and
- Whereas, it is in the public interest for the citizens, civic leaders and children in the State of West Virginia to gain knowledge and to maintain a progressive interest and understanding of the importance of public works and public works programs in their respective communities; and
- Whereas, the American Public Works Association has celebrated the annual National Public Works Week since 1960.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim May 21-27, 2018 as:

National Public Works Association

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me with representatives of the American Public Works Association and government agencies in activities, events and ceremonies designed to pay tribute to our public works professionals, engineers, managers and employees and to recognize the substantial contributions they make to protecting our national health, safety, and quality of life.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Fourth day of May, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Eighteen, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Fifth year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
